The first big order received by the Dos Naciones cigar factory was sent from San Francisco last Monday by Richard Fleischer. The order was for seventeen thousand five hundred cigars. The factory is turning out a large number of very fine cigars every day and a ready sale is being found for them. We predict a grand success for the factory.

The many friends and admirers of Col. J. M. Bacon, in Arizona, will regret to hear that he has been ordered to Fort Meade, Dakota. His command here has proved a great blessing to those exposed to a frontier life, for owing to eternal vigilance the Apache murderer and destroyer has practically become a thing of the past. The prompt and efficient services rendered the people of Nogales and vicinity, during the filibuster troubles last summer and the universal courtesy shown federal and territorial officers will be long remembered.—Citizen.

RAILROAD NEWS.

Supt. J. A. Naugle returned Tuesday from San Francisco.

Mr. Chas. Osgood, formerly with the S. P. but lately with the Torres & Prietas road left Tuesday night for Los Angeles.

Frank Ochoa, fireman on the Nogales switch engine, returned from Guaymas Monday where he has been visiting relatives.

Fred Star who has been breaking on the passenger between Nogales and Benson has returned to his old run between Nogales and Carbo with Conductor Adams.

The east-bound freight business on the main line has been exceptionally good the past week and most trains are being sent out in two and three sections or as double-headers.

Francisco P. Ramirez, clerk in the Mexican postoffice went south Monday with the mail and returned that night. On account of the non-arrival of the train the evening before there was no railway mail clerk to go out.

Judge G. H. Robinson, attorney for the Sonora railroad, has gone east to Chicago and New York on business connected with the change of the Sonora and N. M. & A. roads and the annulling of the contract by the Mexican government.

Joe Reddock, who has been running the switch engine in the Nogales yard for the last month, is now back on his old run firing the passenger between Benson and Nogales with Engineer Schoonmaker. Engineer Treadway is back from Sonora and has taken the switch engine.

Jimmie Glenn, who was formerly brakeman on the passenger between Nogales and Benson has been promoted to conductor on the work train on the Sonora and George Star takes his place on the passenger. Mr. Glenn is a first class railroad man and the promotion is a deserved one.

Engineer Tom Cleveland and Fireman Devesse returned from Guaymas on Saturday where they went with S. P. engine No. 1693 and had it repaired at the Guaymas shops. The work was done as well as though it was done in the S. P. shops at Sacramento. This speaks well for the mechanical skill of Master Mechanic Johnson. Tommy took his bathing suit along and did some plunging. He was shocked however to find that many young ladies bathed at the same place with no bathing suits at all and he could not be induced to go into the water.

Andres S. Lopez, section foreman at Guaymas, was killed at Batuecas last Thursday night. Lopez was rounding a ten per cent curve when the south bound train came along and knocked the hand car off the track. All the hands but Lopez jumped. He was knocked senseless and died shortly after. There are bulletins posted in all section houses to the effect that section foremen shall protect their work by placing a red flag fifteen telegraph poles each way and a red lantern the same distance each way at night. This Lopez had failed to do hence the accident.

Engine 10 came up from Guaymas Monday on the passenger train with Engineer W. P. Hale and Fireman Frank Stone. This is the engine that was totally wrecked in front of the Nogales depot about a year ago. She was wholly rebuilt at the Guaymas shops—she has a new boiler plater and fire box, new cylinders and Allen's balance valves, latest improved monitor injector, the latest Nathan tripple feed nickel plated lubricator, Westinghouse latest D 5, engineer equalizing and discharge valve. This work was done under the supervision of Master Mechanic R. A. Johnson, and the work goes to show that Mr. Johnson is a man of modern views and right up to date on locomotive engineering. The engine looks more as though she was just out of the Cook's locomotive shops where she was built, than from the Guaymas shops where they have a limited amount of machinery to do modern work.

The Territorial Board of Equalization, at their last session, reduced the assessment of the N. M. & A. railway $80,000.

C. A. Elliot has just returned from a trip to his mine in Oxide, about two miles from Tanque Verde in the foot hills of the Rincon mountains. Supt. S. H. Gould, of the Oro Mining Co. at Oro Blanco, was in the city yesterday on business with the board of equalization, and reported everybody prospering favorably with his company. Since Mr. Gould has taken charge of this company's mines and mill the property has become a steady income producer.—Star.

The Star had yesterday the pleasure of a call from C. D. Reppy, of the Florence Tribune, who is on his way home from a few days trip to the Huachuclas, where he has some mining interests. He is accompanied by W. C. Truman, sheriff of Pinal county. The gentlemen left on the west-bound train at 2:40 this morning. Mr. Reppy reported the mining interests in the district he visited as especially prosperous, with an expectation of an early increase of activity, especially at Duquesne, where N. A. Clark, the owner of the Jerome mines, has become interested to the extent of having taken a working bond on some of the copper property there, and is preparing to develop it on a somewhat extensive scale. The development already done is very considerable and the result warrants confidence in the future of the property.—Star.
